

Meeting 3 -Tentative Decisions

- Archive both input (raw) and output (processed) data.
- System should be of modular design.
- All input data should enter system via front-end processor.
- Publish data to the web.
- Handle various input data formats, including some currently undefined.
- Compare output from "redundant" processors.
- Monitor the quality of input, separate from the processing function.